SCAVENGER HUNT

Round I: Riddle Hunt

Find the store that matches the description of the rhyme. Take a photo or grab a flyer from a store to prove you were there.

1. No matter whether you're a girl or whether you're a boy, this is a store where you create your own plush toy!
2. In this shop you will be able to find anything you need for home living it is also the store that in New York plans a big parade for Thanksgiving
3. This next store's name it should be easy, they are not young but are out at sea
4. An online company has the same name and they have music that you can stream, but this one is a place inside the mall that sells lots of items that do gleam
5. To find the next store on the list this clue should help give you a hunch it sounds like it is a country that sells yellow fruit by the bunch
6. You're doing very well at this and you might be feeling bold next up on this scavenger hunt is a subject that's not cold
7. Despite the name of this mall store it does not sell a cadaver instead it stocks lots of items you can work into a lather
8. If a New York baseball team gets bored of playing games they should go and work here and sell things that have flames
9. You're getting through this list so quickly you're going at a very good clip, the last stop on this tour of the mall is where your fingers get a French tip!

Round II: Item Hunt

Find items on the list.

1. Take out menu from the food court restaurants – 1 point for each menu
2. A shopping bag – largest bag overall gets a bonus point
3. Perfume or Cologne sample
4. Map of the mall
5. Employment Application from a store

Round III: Mall Trivia

Answer the trivia questions correctly.

1. How many restaurants are in the food court?
2. How many restaurants in the mall total?
3. When is the mall's birthday?
4. How many entrances to the mall?
5. What company owns the mall?
6. What was the latest store to open at Walden Galleria?
7. Which store is the next to open at Walden Galleria?
